Preachers' Transport, Hospitality and Expenses

Will Church Stewards please make arrangements for transport for preachers who have no car.

Mrs. Maureen Jones and Mrs S. M. Rudden will always need transport. Stewards can readily ascertain other needs.

Occasionally it is possible for one preacher to pick up another, but Stewards are asked to arrange this by consulting the Plan.

Where a preacher comes from another circuit, will stewards please pay necessary expenses, and claim them from Mr. David Pickstone where appropriate (12 Yorke Avenue, Marchwiel, Wrexham, LL13 0SG Tel. 01978 364257). Churches which themselves invite a preacher are responsible for expenses, from their own funds. Local Preachers who wish to claim travel expenses may do so from David Pickstone.

When due to transport arrangements a preacher arrives early for an appointment, it would be appreciated if stewards would kindly provide hospitality until the time of the service. When a preacher is planned at a church for the first time, Church Stewards should ensure that they know where it is and how to get there, offering transport if needed.
